

Poetic Devices - Alliteration

1. Which choice is an example of alliteration in a sentence?

- Ferdinand helped the cat find its home.
- Chandler charges for cheesecake to give to charity.
- All of these are examples.
- My sister loves frogs and dogs.

2. Which of the phrases in this poem are alliterative?

- "The waves beside them danced"
- "And dances with the daffodils"
- "Tossing their heads in sprightly dance"
- "I gazed—and gazed—but little thought"

3. How does alliteration help to create an effect in a poem?

- By repeating the same word, it creates rhythm.
- By repeating the same sound, it makes the poem logical.
- By repeating the same consonant sound, it makes the poem more memorable.
- By repeating the same vowel sound, it makes the poem more memorable.

4. What emotion or mood do the alliterative phrases "High o'er vales and hills" and "Beside the lake, beneath the trees" in the first verse evoke?

- Worrisome
- Wondrous
- Calculated
- Hyperactive