

Imagery

1. Which of the sentences in the paragraph contain imagery?

(1)Roselyn ran as fast as she could, darting between trees and leaping over bushes. (2)Her friends ran from her, trying to avoid her touch to win the game. (3)Roselyn imagined herself a cheetah, graceful and swift, as she effortlessly sprinted after her prey. (4)As she rounded a corner, she suddenly came to a stop, pivoting on her heel and lashing out a hand to tag her friend's shoulder. (5)In the end, Roselyn was able to tag her friends before declaring victory.

- Sentences 1 and 3
- Sentences 1, 3, and 4
- Sentences 1 and 4
- Sentences 2, 3, and 5

2. Which of the following is the best example of imagery?

- The distressed baby cried a wail when their father didn't buy the desirable ice cream cone.
- The baby cried, and everyone turned their head to see where the sound was coming from.
- The distressed baby cried screeching wails that echoed the walls of the crowded mall and turned the heads of alarmed passersby.
- The baby cried many tears when their father didn't buy the ice cream cone from the food court.

3. Which of the following is the best example of imagery?

- Yelena has a large rock collection, and she owns many different-sized shelves to hold everything.
- Yelena collects many different types of rocks that she collects on the shelf in the corner of her bedroom.
- Yelena's abundant rock collection was spilling out of the shelves and crowded her tiny wooden nightstand in the corner of her dark room.
- Yelena loved to collect various rocks and kept as many as possible in one of her brown shelves.

4. Sandra believes that the following sentence contains imagery. "The beautiful restaurant was lit only from the dim candles and roses in vases." What would you tell her?

- Yes, the sentence is using imagery because it creates a romantic atmosphere, and it uses the sense of sight.
- No, that sentence has no imagery because it doesn't use any of the five senses.

- No, that is not using imagery because it is too straightforward of a description and does not evoke emotion.
- Yes, the sentence is using imagery because it creates a chaotic atmosphere, and it uses the sense of sight.

5. How would you edit the following sentence to add more imagery: "The landscape was beautiful" ?

- The landscape was so incredibly beautiful that Leslie had to take a picture to forever remember the sight.
- The landscape was a symphony of sights and sounds, with the gentle rustling of leaves in the breeze, the chatter of birds in the trees, and the bubbling of a nearby stream.
- The landscape looked incredibly healthy and plentiful.
- The landscape view had many birds making sounds and water sources in various locations.