

Making It Personal

1. Which of the following best describes a text-to-world connection?

- Thinking of a TV show that also revolves around crime solving while reading a detective novel
- Remembering a fact about the human body that you learned when reading a book about a doctor
- Connecting a character's happiness with your own
- Associating a story's setting in a certain time period with another book set during the same time

2. Which of the following scenarios shows a text-to-text connection?

- Relating a character's cooking mishaps to your own experiences in the kitchen
- Realizing that a character's journey resembles the road trip that you took last summer
- Associating a book's depiction of a historical event to your history lessons
- Linking the lessons learned in a new book to lessons from stories in the same genre

3. What do we call a connection between a book and facts, historical events, or news?

- Text-to-self connection
- Text-to-world connection
- Text-to-text connection
- Text-to-movie connection

4. Tim relates to a character's love for soccer because he also loves soccer. What type of connection is this?

- Text-to-self
- None of these
- Text-to-world
- Text-to-text

5. Ben thinks the book's setting is similar to another story he has read. What type of connection is this?

- Text-to-world
- Text-to-text
- Text-to-self
- None of these

6. What is a text-to-self connection?

- Links between a book and your own life
- Links between two books
- Links between a book and a movie
- Links between a book and a historical event

7. What is a text-to-text connection?

- Links between a book and a historical event
- Links between a book and another text
- Links between a book and your own life
- Links between a book and an author's life

8. Ivan relates the character's struggle for freedom to the Civil Rights Movement. What type of connection is this?

- None of these
- Text-to-text
- Text-to-self
- Text-to-world

9. Ada considers how the book's events relate to the American Revolution. What type of connection is this?

- None of these
- Text-to-text
- Text-to-self
- Text-to-world

10. Which of the following shows a text-to-self connection?

- Comparing the protagonist of your novel to the protagonist of the last novel you read
- Connecting your novel to the most recent news story you saw
- Relating to a character who is very detailed, just like you
- Recalling a movie that has a similar conflict to your novel