

Sentence Fragments

1. Which of the following is a sentence fragment?

- Every summer, our family embarks on a new adventure to a destination we've never explored before.
- Sunsets on the beach, the sound of waves, the children splashing along the shoreline.
- The vibrant streets of Barcelona captivated my heart, making me wish I could stay longer.
- Traveling not only refreshes the mind but also broadens your perspective of the world.

2. Why is "Hoped to win the lottery" a sentence fragment?

- It is missing punctuation.
- It is missing a subject.
- It is missing an adjective.
- It is missing a noun.

3. Which of the following is a sentence fragment that is missing a subject?

- Through the thick forest, they.
- Baked a delicious chocolate cake.
- On a sunny day, Jessica.
- Smiling brightly and laughing Pedro.

4. Correct the sentence fragment "The dense, spooky forest."

- Lost in time, in the dense, spooky forest.
- We walked through the dense, spooky forest.
- The dense, spooky forest shadows play tricks.
- Whispers and echoes, in the dense, spooky forest.

5. Correct the sentence fragment "Above the fluffy, white clouds."

- Gazing into the endless blue, above the fluffy, white clouds.
- A plane above the fluffy, white clouds.
- We flew above the fluffy, white clouds.
- Dreaming of places far away, above the fluffy, white clouds.

6. Correct the sentence fragment "The book filled with fascinating stories."

- The book, filled with fascinating stories, a gift from my grandfather.
- The book filled with fascinating stories on the dusty shelf.
- The book filled with fascinating stories pages yellowed.
- The book, filled with fascinating stories, captivated the reader.

7. Which of the following is a sentence fragment?

- He finished his work and then went to play.
- She loves playing piano and guitar.
- Enjoying the beautiful sunset.
- Despite the challenging circumstances, they succeeded.

8. Why is "Was full of anticipation and excitement" a sentence fragment?

- It is missing a noun.
- It is missing an adjective.
- It is missing a verb.
- It is missing a subject.

9. Correct the sentence fragment "After the intense game."

- After the intense game, faces lit by stadium lights.
- After the intense game, emotions running high.
- After the intense game, they celebrated their victory.
- After the intense game, shoes scuffed and jerseys torn.

10. Correct the sentence fragment "Along the scenic path."

- Along the scenic path, as the day waned.
- Bicycling with friends, along the scenic path.
- Along the scenic path, she saw beautiful wildflowers.
- Lost in thought, along the scenic path.