

What Is Fiction?

1. What is fiction?

- A type of writing based on true events
- A type of writing that can only take the form of novels
- A type of writing that always has a happy ending
- A type of writing that comes from the author's imagination

2. What does the note in the old book provide?

Billy found a note in the old book. It read, 'Beware the cursed treasure. It brings great fortune but at a terrible cost.' The words made him shiver.

- Foreshadowing about the cursed treasure
- A humorous element to the story
- Information about Billy's family
- A resolution to the story

3. What is the theme of this story?

In the end, after surviving the dragon's lair and returning the stolen treasure, the villagers hailed Georgia as a hero. Georgia learned that bravery was not about being fearless, but about facing your fears.

- Surviving in a dragon's lair is challenging.
- Treasure is a valuable asset.
- Bravery is about facing your fears.
- Being hailed as a hero is important.

4. In which of these forms can fiction appear?

- All of these
- Poems
- Novels
- Short stories

5. Who are the characters mentioned in the passage?

In the bustling city of Metroville, Detective Johnson and her trusty partner, Officer Kelly, were on a mission to solve their toughest case yet. The only person who seemed to have the information they needed was a well-known street artist named Sparrow.

- Detective Johnson, Metroville, and Sparrow
- Detective Johnson, Officer Kelly, and Metroville
- Detective Metroville, Officer Kelly, and Sparrow
- Detective Johnson, Officer Kelly, and Sparrow

6. Why are characters important in fiction?

- They solve the conflict in the story.
- They talk to the reader directly to teach them a lesson.
- They are the individuals who move the story forward.
- They set the scene for the story.

7. What does the theme in a fictional story represent?

- The series of events that happen in the story
- The message or lesson that stays with the reader long after the story ends
- The problems that characters must face
- The individuals we meet in the story

8. What conflict is Princess Myra facing in this passage?

Princess Myra was torn. Should she follow her duty and marry Prince Alden of Neighboria, or should she follow her heart and pursue her dream of becoming a famed knight?

- A conflict about where to live
- A conflict with Prince Alden
- A conflict with her parents
- A conflict between her duty and her dreams

9. What do authors include to increase the drama and suspense in a story?

- Fiction and non-fiction elements
- Theme and plot
- Conflict and foreshadowing
- Characters and setting

10. What is the setting of this story?

It was a dark and stormy night. The old haunted house stood alone at the end of the street, its windows glowing eerily.

- A bustling city in the morning
- A sunny beach during the day
- A quiet library in the afternoon
- A dark haunted house on a stormy night